

Time Out

New York

The obsessive guide to impulsive entertainment
August 15-22, 2002 Issue No. 359 $2.99

DINNER WITH THE SOPRANOS

Restaurants that serve a side of Verdi

SURF CITY

Local beaches where you can hang ten

LITTLE WOMEN

Kids' clothes even you can wear

Comedy | Listings

AUGUST 15-22, 2002 61

Funny business

Soupy du jour

He may not have gotten much respect from his pie-throwing TV pals, but Soupy Sales is held in high esteem by legions of comics who grew up watching his classic kids' show. On Saturday 17, as part of the third annual Hamptons Comedy Festival, the 76-year-old legend will receive the Friars Club Award for Special Achievement in Comedy Arts. Of course, comedy fans can't live on Soup alone, so the festival also offers three nights of stand-up from Todd Barry, Danny Cohen, Jim David, Tom Shillue, Ed Helms, Eddie Brill, John Viener and nearly a billion other great comics. And as if that weren't enough to convince you to hop the LIRR, it's all for a good cause. Proceeds benefit research at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center.

The Hamptons Comedy Festival runs Thursday 15 through Saturday 17 at Rocco's à la Playa in Sag Harbor, L.I. See listings. For more info, go to www.hamptonscomedyfestival.com.

Now that's twist

One

Connie Nielsen in
Mark Romanek's edgy

PLUS Darkroom conf from NYC photo labs.

Photo

INTERVIEWS

Neil LaBute

Neko Case

Lee Hazlewood

and Marianne Faithfull
on the Hot Seat

13.00

33 >

9 771084 550019